RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE COUNTY EXECUTIVE TO EXECUTE PUBLIC SAFETY TRAINING AGREEMENTS

WHEREAS, the County's Public Safety agencies require various legal agreements to support training; and

WHEREAS, the timely execution of such agreements is necessary to ensure continuity of operations, responsiveness, and the effective delivery of public safety functions; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Supervisors finds it appropriate and efficient to authorize the County Executive to sign and execute such agreements on behalf of the County, provided that each agreement has first been reviewed and approved as to form and content by the County Attorney;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors hereby authorizes the County Executive to sign and execute all agreements necessary to support Public Safety training; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that such authorization is conditioned upon prior review and approval of each agreement as to form and substance by the County Attorney; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that the County Executive and Public Safety agencies ensure that all executed agreements comply with applicable laws, County policies, and budgetary requirements.
