

Retreat Visioning Prep Work

<http://www.amritt.com/China-India-America.html>

Question: How are international shifts in political, economic and demographic variables potentially going to affect what we need to do to be sure our learners can successfully navigate a rapidly changing world?

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6ILQrUrEWe8>

Directions for viewing: You may wish to save this video then watch in order to have a smooth viewing or you can pause the video, wait about 10 minutes, then hit play so it has time to load.

Question: What are the big ideas from shift happens 4.0 that you think should inform the Board and staff focus on next generation Goal 1- 5 strategic work?

<http://video.scholastic.com/services/player/bcpid1815825800?bctid=86298100001>

Question: What are the implications for rapidly changing learning technologies for strategic planning and effective use of financial resources to support Goal 1?

Repurposing teaching and learning through the use of technology learning accelerators (iPods, tablets, netbooks, Smart Boards, laptops..) is a key area of focus across best in class school districts and educational researchers This is a key discussion for the Board as we engage in Visioning 2023

<http://www.eschoolnews.com/2010/02/16/11-programs-only-as-good-as-their-teachers/>

The long story about 1:1 technology learning accelerators with focus on human capital capacity-building as key or...

<http://projectred.org/news/?p=61> The short story about 1:1 technology learning accelerators with focus on impact on student achievement.

This Project Tomorrow site offers you insight into what we need to consider in “Preparing today's students to be tomorrow's innovators, leaders and engaged citizens” as reported through their survey data, interviews, and research using almost 400,000 participants, including significant numbers of students.

<http://www.tomorrow.org/speakup/>