

SCHOOL BOARD REPRESENTATION BY BOARD-EMPLOYED ATTORNEYS

| Division                                                         | Number of Full-Time Attorneys* | Salary Range                                                                           | Additional Funding for outside counsel |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|
| Chesterfield County(58,691 students)           | 1 FTE (vacant since 7/2010)    | $85,698-$150,856                                                                     | Yes                                    |
| Fairfax County(roughly 175,000 students)       | 2.5 FTEs                       | $78,904-133,888(assist. div. counsel),$124,938-181,774(division counsel) | Yes                                    |
| City of Hampton(20,876 students)               | 1 FTE                          | $86,000-$139,222                                                                     | Yes                                    |
| Loudoun(63,220 students)                       | 1 FTE                          |                                                                                        | Yes                                    |
| Newport News(30,500 students)                  | 1 FTE                        |                                                                                        | No                                     |
| Prince William County(roughly 78,000 students) | 1 FTE                          | $157,468-$177,231                                                                    | Yes                                    |
| Stafford County(roughly 27,000 students)       | 1 FTE                          | $164,900*                                                                             | Yes, $153,035                         |
| City of Suffolk(14,510 students)               | 1 FTE                          | $140,000*                                                                             | No                                     |

*Actual Salary

** Newport News also uses the services of its City Attorney's Office

Information obtained by the County Attorney's Office and Human Resources with the assistance of the Virginia School Boards Association and various school divisions