Summary: Staff recommends the Board designate Friday, June 11, as the last student school day for the 2009-10 school year. Students missed 10 days of school due to inclement weather during the 2009-10 school year and will have made up five of those days by the end of the day on Friday, June 11. The Division will meet minimum clock hour requirements set forth in the Code of Virginia for elementary, middle, and high school instruction.

Staff also recommends that the Board identify January 18 as an additional make-up day for the 2010-11 school year.

Funding:
