

Budget Bistro

Wednesday, September 23, 6-7:30pm

CHARLOTTEVILLE MIDDLE SCHOOL

1000 CHERRY AVENUE, CHARLOTTEVILLE

Join Charlottesville City Schools for a communal meal to share your ideas on how the division should allot resources. Participants will enjoy an appetizer, main course, and dessert while selecting from a 'menu' of budget options for supporting students and schools.

Free | Interpreters, childcare & transportation available

Schedule

- 6-6:15: Welcome presentation
- 6:15-6:30: Appetizer Course
 - Visit either Instruction or Enrichment station to learn from staff about how budgets support these areas while appetizers are passed around
 - Choose from your “budget menu” what you would prioritize
- 6:30-7:10: Main Course
 - School Board serves buffet-style meal. Students and staff act as table leaders to discuss Supports for Students during dinner.
 - Choose from a “budget menu” what you would prioritize
- 7:10-7:25: “Dessert”
 - Visit either Instruction or Enrichment zone to learn from staff about how budgets support these areas while desserts are passed around
 - Choose from a “budget menu” what you would prioritize
- 7:25-7:30: Settle up! Hand in your completed budget menu.

Role of School Board

- Open event with brief, high-level overview of division budget process and how you will use community feedback provided
- During “appetizer” and “dessert” rounds, rotate through to listen to discussions
- During main course round, serve buffet-style dinner to attendees
