*Per Management Directive 3.4, the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) releases NRC generated documents to the public after the recipient has an opportunity to read the document before it is made publicly available. This e-mail serves that purpose, commonly referred to as an “advance listserv,” and is sent to only designated NRC and licensee staff prior to releasing the document to the public. Contact the site NRC Project Manager immediately if you identify any sensitive information or have questions regarding the attached correspondence. Contact orca.resource@nrc.gov regarding a licensee’s advance listserv recipients. The NRC suggests a licensee use and maintain a “group” distribution e-mail for advance listserv. This eliminates the need to periodically request the NRC update a licensee’s advance listserv recipients. Advance listserv recipients will also receive the same document via the public listserv.
