INFORMATION/DISCUSSION ITEMS

Presentation – Firefly Internet Service Update

Mr. Gary Wood, President and CEO of Firefly Fiber Broadband, provided a comprehensive update on the status of broadband expansion throughout Louisa County. Accompanied by Galen Creekmore of Firefly and representatives from the Thomas Jefferson Planning District Commission, Mr. Wood began by referencing a color-coded county map showing the progress of fiber installation. Mr. Wood explained that Firefly had completed all major construction in circuits associated with the Buckner, Mount Hope, and Shannon Hill substations, as well as in the Spring Hill area. Portions of Ellisville and the Cuckoo circuits were still being finalized.

Mr. Wood stated 8,550 homes and businesses in Louisa County had active Firefly connections, out of roughly 17,500 passings. With a take rate of approximately 60%, he projected that Firefly would ultimately serve around 11,000 locations. He reported that nearly 1,500 miles of fiber had been installed, with a total project investment approaching $85–$90 million, including $14 million from earlier projects and nearly $70 million from more recent grants and local contributions. He emphasized that Firefly was on track to complete most of the project by August 2025, though he anticipated requesting a time extension to finish smaller, more complex areas and new assignments in surrounding counties.

Mr. Wood also highlighted the recently awarded VATI 2024 grant, which will fund fiber expansion to an additional 434 homes across 16 miles. This smaller-scale project fills in coverage gaps and includes areas that were reclassified from “served” to “unserved” after prior incumbent providers conceded they were not delivering adequate service. Mr. Wood assured the Board that Firefly would not seek additional grants unnecessarily and was committed to ensuring all unserved residents would receive access, even if some minor areas remained beyond the current grant scope.

Mr. Wood concluded by reaffirming Firefly’s goal of connecting all homes in Louisa as swiftly as possible, stating they had ramped up connection rates to 250 per week as weather improved, and reiterated his appreciation for the county’s partnership and patience.

Board members commended Firefly and emphasized the project's significant positive impact.

- Skate ramps in the amount of $90,016.15; and
- Concrete work and usage improvements estimated between $25,000 and $40,000.

The Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee has reviewed the proposed improvements and recommended approval of the plan to the Board of Supervisors. The Parks and Recreation Park Maintenance and Enhancements Capital Project, with a current balance of $457,923, has sufficient funds to support these improvements.

On the motion of Mr. Barnes, seconded by Mr. Woodward, which carried by a vote of 7-0, the Board voted to approve the use of an amount not to exceed $160,000 from the Parks and Recreation Park Maintenance and Enhancements Capital Project (30371000-482400) to fund and award contracts for the procurement and installation of fencing, skate ramps, concrete work, and usage improvements for the Louisa County Skatepark through cooperative contracts.

PUBLIC HEARINGS*Public Hearing – Proposed Real Property Tax Increase for FY2026

Finance Director, Ms. Wanda Covin began the hearing by confirming that the FY2026 proposed budget is balanced using the current real estate tax rate of $0.72 per $100 of assessed value. She noted that due to an 8.12% increase in assessments, the County is required by Virginia law to hold a public hearing before maintaining the current rate. Assessor Terry Bourne then outlined the reassessment process, stressing that the Assessor's Office is independent from the Board and operates under the Commissioner of Revenue. She provided a detailed explanation of how values are calculated based on fair market sales and emphasized the appeals process, which is open until March 28.

Chairman Adams opened the public hearing.

Mr. Ed Heany, Patrick Henry District, spoke about the rising property values and taxes, which he felt were disproportionately affecting long-term residents like himself. He mentioned that he had not made any improvements to his property, yet the assessed value increased by $140,000. He expressed concern that the county's approach was pushing out working-class people, particularly in favor of wealthier individuals moving in. He requested that the Board reconsider the tax increases and make more equitable decisions for long-term residents.

Mr. Phil Winston, Mineral District, shared his concerns about the disparity between his property's assessed value and the actual market value. He highlighted the situation of a nearby short-term rental property, noting that a newly built home was valued the same as his older home, even though it generated substantial rental income. He argued that the county should differentiate between residential and short-term rental properties, which he believes were being treated unfairly in terms of assessments. Mr. Winston suggested that the county should look at the revenues generated by short-term rentals to more accurately assess their value.

Ms. Julie Houston, Patrick Henry District, expressed concern over the significant increase in her assessment. She noted that her daughter's mobile home, considered affordable housing, had seen its assessment increase by over $100,000 in a short period. She called for a reduction in the tax rate and suggested that the county hold town halls for better community engagement on the budget and tax matters.

Mr. Joseph Kairys, Cuckoo District, shared his frustration with the high property tax increases, stating that he had experienced an over 60% increase in his property value over five years. He also pointed out that his property, which is waterfront, had been assessed at a higher value than neighboring properties, even though they had more bedrooms and were larger homes. He urged the Board to look into these discrepancies, particularly for properties like his, where there was a large increase in value but no major improvements made to the property.

Mr. Richard Magenheimer, Cuckoo District, commented on the inequities in the waterfront property assessment formulas. He stated that the county's algorithm for valuing waterfront properties was outdated and failed to consider factors like the number of feet of frontage or the commercial nature of short-term rental properties. He suggested that the Board hire an expert to update the assessment methodology to reflect current market conditions, particularly for waterfront properties, and recommended treating short-term rental properties as commercial rather than residential for tax purposes.

Ms. Vicky Harte, Louisa District, spoke about the rising tax burden on her home in the Town of Louisa, where her assessment had increased by $145,000. She pointed out the financial strain of paying higher taxes, especially as her Social Security benefits only increased by $24 per month. She emphasized that these rising costs were putting significant pressure on her ability to stay in her home, as her monthly mortgage payment had increased by $1,000 due to higher assessments and insurance costs.

Mr. James Keys, Cuckoo District, voiced concern over the accuracy of property assessments, particularly regarding his neighbor's property, which had been listed at the assessed value for nine months without selling. He suggested that the county consider implementing a system, where property owners could be reimbursed for overpaid taxes if their properties sold for less than the assessed value. He proposed that assessors be held accountable for discrepancies in the system and that properties be reassessed after unsuccessful sales to ensure fairness.

Mr. John Oliha, Cuckoo District, urged the Board to reduce the tax rate and focus on creating a balanced budget without relying on increasing the tax burden on residents. He suggested that new construction and development should cover the costs of growth, rather than raising taxes for existing property owners. He expressed that many long-time residents, particularly those on fixed incomes, were being unfairly burdened by rising taxes and property values.

Mr. Bruce Henning, Cuckoo District, a waterfront property owner, shared his concern over the sharp increase in his taxes, which had risen by nearly 80% in the past few years. He explained that, while he and his wife built their home with the intention of staying in it for the long term, the high tax rates were making it increasingly difficult to afford. He echoed Mr. Oliha's sentiment about setting a budget first and then adjusting tax rates to meet that budget, rather than basing the budget on anticipated revenue from property taxes. He also recommended exploring tax relief options for seniors on fixed incomes.

Mr. Doug McClary, Green Springs District, acknowledged that rising property values are a reflection of the broader housing market and that assessments reflect those increases. However, he urged the Board to reconsider the current tax rate in light of the new assessments. Speaking from experience as a landlord, he noted that rising taxes also impact renters, many of whom are already struggling with affordability. He emphasized that any action the Board can take to ease the financial burden—particularly by adjusting the tax rate—would be appreciated by residents.

Mr. Jordan Neangeliz, Mountain Road District, stated that although he has not lived in Louisa County for long, he and his family chose it as their permanent home and the place to raise their children. He described Louisa as a community they love and want to remain in. While he acknowledged that assessments are based on market value, he expressed concern about applying 100% of market value to homes that are not actively for sale. He felt that this approach creates inequities and noted that the tax rate of $0.72, though stable in recent years, had fluctuated over the past two decades. He encouraged the Board to consider the broader picture—pointing out that new homes and businesses bring in additional revenue—and argued that growth should benefit citizens through a reduced or stabilized tax burden.

Ms. Celeste Coulter, Mountain Road District, moved here in 2021 and shared that she was drawn by the rural setting and relatively low taxes, intending to make it her lifelong home. However, she expressed serious concern about the trajectory of her property assessments, noting that her home's assessed value has increased by $140,000 in just four years despite no improvements being made. She also cited a $49,000 jump in the last year alone for her vacant agricultural land. She questioned the fairness of such steep increases and respectfully requested that the Board consider lowering the tax rate to help keep Louisa affordable for residents like herself.

Ms. Amy Ware, Jackson District, noted as a landlord, rising taxes also impact renters, many of whom are already struggling with affordability.

With no one else wishing to speak, Chairman Adams closed the public hearing and brought it back to the Board for discussion.

Chairman Adams thanked the public for their respectful tone and acknowledged their concerns. He reminded attendees that budget deliberations begin in October and are open to the public, though they are often sparsely attended. He encouraged more participation in early stages of the process and reminded citizens of upcoming hearings.

Deputy Director of Community Development Tom Egeland, presented the application for a Conditional Use Permit (CUP) to allow a construction yard at Tax Map #24-17-A, a five-acre parcel zoned General Commercial (C2). The applicant currently leases one acre for gravel, concrete trucks, and equipment. While no concrete is mixed on site, materials are loaded for transport. The property is used to support local and county projects.

At a regular meeting of the Louisa County Planning Commission held on February 13, 2025, the Planning Commission voted that the public necessity, convenience, general welfare, or good zoning practice compels it to make a recommendation of approval to the Louisa County Board of Supervisors on the conditional use permit request CUP2024-06, to allow the operation of a construction yard in the General Commercial (C-2) zoning district with the following six (6) conditions:

Mr. Egeland presented a combined request for a CUP and a rezoning amendment to allow Amos Equipment Repair to expand operations at a 4.26-acre site on Jefferson Highway (Route 33). The property is zoned General Commercial (C2) and includes an existing structure and a proposed 8,000 square-foot building. Twelve revised proffers were submitted to address community concerns regarding lighting, landscaping, and noise. Only one resident attended the January 8, 2025, neighborhood meeting, expressing minor concerns that were resolved.

The applicant is also requesting to amend proffers regarding hours of operation, activity levels, and access from REZ1989-06.

At a regular meeting of the Louisa County Planning Commission held on February 13, 2025, the Planning Commission voted that the public necessity, convenience, general welfare, or good zoning practice compels it to make a recommendation of approval to the Louisa County Board of Supervisors on the proffer amendment request REZ2024-08 to amend proffers #7, 8, 9, 10, and 11 from REZ1989-06 and conditional use permit request CUP2024-09, to allow for the operation of equipment sales and rental in the General Commercial (C-2) zoning district with the following eight (8) conditions:

7. Inspections. The Board of Supervisors or their designated representative shall have the right to inspect the site at any reasonable time without prior notice.
8. Permit Revocation. Violation of any conditions contained herein shall be grounds for revocation of the Conditional Use Permit.

Chairman Adams opened the public hearing. With no one wishing to speak, Chairman Adams closed the public hearing and brought it back to the Board for discussion.

Mr. Williams emphasized that this property is uniquely zoned C2 in his district and that the use is compatible with the location. He praised Mr. Amos' existing work and expressed support for strengthening agricultural support services. The CUP and rezoning amendment were approved unanimously after a motion by Williams and second by another supervisor.

On the motion of Mr. Williams, seconded by Mr. Barnes, which carried by a vote of 7-0, the Board voted to approve the proffer amendment request REZ2024-08, and Conditional Use Permit request (CUP2024-09) Amos Equipment Repair.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, on this 17th day of March 2025, that the Louisa County Board of Supervisors hereby approves the proffer amendment request REZ2024-08, and conditional use permit request CUP2024-09 Amos Equipment Repair LLC, Applicant; Land Lovers Enterprises LLC, Owner; Anne Miller, Balzar and Associates, Agent.

Ordinance – To Amend Louisa County Code Chapter 62 (Solid Waste); Section 27, 28, 31, 32, 33, 35, 36, & 40

Staff introduced the proposed amendments, which modernize definitions for residential waste, create stronger enforcement tools against non-compliant commercial haulers, and align the ordinance with state regulations. The changes stemmed from a litter workgroup led by Supervisors Jones and McCotter.

Supervisor Woodward raised concern over language in Section 62-34(A) that restricts businesses from using County-owned bulk containers, even for small volumes of household-type trash (e.g., paper towels, solo cups). He shared anecdotes of enforcement inconsistencies and emphasized the need for more flexibility, particularly for small farms and businesses.

Supervisor Barnes and others echoed this concern, noting that farmers and others have been turned away despite bringing residential-style waste.

The Board agreed that the language regarding business-generated waste needed review and potentially revision but did not want to delay the broader updates.

Chairman Adams opened the public hearing. With no one wishing to speak, Chairman Adams closed the public hearing and brought it back to the Board for discussion.

On the motion of Mr. Barnes, seconded by Mr. Williams, which carried by a vote of 6-1, with Mr. Barlow voting against, The Board voted to approve the amendments to Chapter 62 – Solid Waste of the Louisa County Code, with a follow-up directive to staff to return with adjusted language for Section 62-34(A) in a future hearing.
