ADOPTING THE LOUISA COUNTY PUBLIC OUTDOOR ART PROGRAM POLICY

WHEREAS, public art is a tool for tourism growth by adding to an area's sense of place and beauty; and

WHEREAS, the Tourism Advisory Committee has reviewed and recommended adoption of the Louisa County Public Outdoor Art Program Policy as a means to enhance placemaking, civic pride, and economic vitality throughout the County; and

WHEREAS, the Public Outdoor Art Program supports the County's tourism goals by encouraging installations to draw visitors for exploration of Louisa County; and

WHEREAS, research and experience in communities across the Commonwealth and beyond show that outdoor art contributes to increased visitation, extended stays, and greater community visibility; and

WHEREAS, this policy provides a structured process for selecting, funding, and maintaining public art, while promoting collaboration with local and regional artists, nonprofit organizations, and private partners.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Louisa County Board of Supervisors hereby adopts the Louisa County Public Outdoor Art Program Policy, as recommended by the Tourism Advisory Committee; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Louisa County Board of Supervisors directs staff to implement the policy in coordination with the Tourism Advisory Committee, ensuring public art is used to enhance community aesthetics, support tourism objectives, and celebrate the character and creativity of Louisa County.
